Judges and Guest Speakers

Camille McArdle, DVM- AKC Open Show Judge

Camille McArdle's enjoyment of animals began in childhood with horses, dogs, and guinea pigs. After working some years on the racetracks in south Florida, she entered The Ohio State University as an Animal Science major and eventually earned her Doctorate in Veterinary Medicine, as well as a healthy love of football. Dr. McArdle worked as a racing regulatory veterinarian for a decade, in companion-animal practice for another 12 years, as Dean of Veterinary Technology for a network of 21 career schools, and in shelter medicine at Minneapolis Animal Care & Control since early 2015. She was appointed to the Minnesota Racing Commission in 1993 and is presently in her 26th year as a Commissioner. Camille obtaining her first bloodhound in 1989. Since then she has bred six generations of champion bloodhounds, as well as two basset hound litters with several champions from those litters. Five years ago a Spinone Italiano joined the household. She met her first Bracco at the Spinone National that year and immediately became fascinated with the breed. She began judging in 2007 and is now approved by the American Kennel Club to judge all hound breeds as well as some sporting and working breeds.

Ericka Dennis

I live in Cardiff by the Sea (San Diego), California with my husband Robert and our 5 year old daughter Chiara, and our 5 Bracchi: Regina, Giuseppe, Sissi, Ciccio and Mare. We got our first Bracco, Rico, from Italy in 2001. Since then we have met new people from all over the US and Europe, plus Domestic and International travel for many events over the span of the last 18 years.

I have held the offices of President and Board Member with the BICA, Presidency of the San Diego Chapter of the North American Versatile Hunting Dog Association and am currently the President of the Bracco Italiano Health Foundation. I enjoy hunting, showing and testing the Bracco in various venues across the US and Europe.

I have traveled to Italy extensively and have cultivated good relationships with several Italian breeders, judges and trainers. I take Italian lessons and try to speak it whenever I can. I feel it is extremely important to keep an open dialog and working relationship with the SABI (Italian Breed Club). We need to continue to learn and import/breed good stock. I spent many hours studying the Bracco in the field in Italy and in the US trying to learn the proper application of the working and conformation standards. I believe in applying not only the conformation standard but the working standard into every dog we have. The BICA mission of a dual dog means a great deal to me. You cannot have a good working dog without good conformation and you can't have a good Bracco that meets the conformation standard without the dog being able to do what it was bred to do, Hunt!

Ed Erickson

Ed Erickson is the owner of Autumn Breeze Kennel and primary gun dog trainer. With many years of hunting dog training experience, client satisfaction is reflected in every hunting dog that he trains.

A personal message from Ed Erickson:

"My father introduced me to the great sport of hunting early in life and the love of that has stayed with me and I'm very grateful for that.

Unfortunately my father never got to see any of my dogs hunt as he passed away too soon in life.

I had my first lab in my teens and did most of the training through books and help from others with dogs. I got my first German Shorthaired Pointer in 1983, and found NAVHDA the same year as I needed help training a pointing dog. There the foundation was set and I was hooked on the breed and pointing dogs. I read books, bought videos and attended seminars to broaden my knowledge of training so that I could bring out the best in the dogs I owned. Through this, my knowledge grew and people started asking for my help with their dogs. It was a joy to help train them and their dogs. At that time in life I was in the high pressure management world of the printing industry. I felt it was time to make a career move so I left printing in 1998 and pursued a career of training dogs and specializing in versatile pointing dogs. I already had established a kennel and name (Autumn Breeze Kennel) by that time. I had been successful in training and testing my dogs in the NAVHDA venue so I made the risky leap. It was trying as all new business ventures go but it has been well worth it.

I have trained many quality dogs from many breeds along with their owners, which has given me great satisfaction. I look forward to each day's challenges meeting new clients and their dogs along with pursuing the great sport of bird hunting with a WELL TRAINED DOG. Autumn Breeze Kennels track record speaks for itself, and you will be fully satisfied with the outcome when your dog is out in the field with you. I look forward to working with you!"

Amanda Inman DVM

Amanda Inman is a small animal veterinarian who has owned and bred Bracco Italiano dogs for the past sixteen years. In 2007, she co-founded the Bracco Italiano Club of America and served as the club's first president. She is currently the club's president, chairperson of the Judges' Education Committee, and on the committee for the Bracco Italiano Health Foundation. She graduated vet school from the University of Florida in 2017. She is now a faculty member at the University of Florida College of Veterinary Medicine in the Emergency and Critical Care service, and she has ongoing research into familial kidney disease in the Bracco. Amanda lives in Ocala, Florida. In her free time she enjoys gardening, hiking, and spending time with her partner, their Bracco, and three (yes, three) cats.

Marilyn Vinson

I have bred and shown Chinese Shar-Pei for almost 40 years. Through the Shar-Pei I became involved in AKC Canine Good Citizen and Therapy dog work and have been an evaluator for CGC and a tester/observer for therapy dogs for over 25 years.

We have had Bracco for just over 11 years. My husband had hunted over dogs most of his life but never had his own, or trained a pointing dog. "Max" was our first and sold us on the breed. Could not ask for a better companion, pet or hunting dog. We found a trainer we liked and after a few months he entered Max in Master Hunter -no JH or SH. We are so proud of him - in 2 weekends he earned his MH. He is the first Master Hunter

Advanced in the breed and the first Bracco to hold the Lifetime Master Hunter Achievement. Also the first AKC Therapy dog in the breed. He also has his Certificate of Merit for conformation. To top it off he was the first CHIC dog in the breed. We have been humbled by two strong willed girls but we are getting there!

TESTIMONIAL

"I started giving my 7-year-old dog on the STRENGTH FORMULA a couple days before we started hunting, during the trip, and a couple days after. He is usually pretty wiped out from the extra exercise he gets during the trip, but since we started him on the Strength formula his recuperation time is much better and he doesn't take as long to bounce back. We now use this before, during and after each hunting trip to help him enjoy his favorite pastime." – Bill

2021 Dual Dog Award

The Dual dog will be awarded to the dog that does well in the field and has good conformation. This is a very important award as this is one of our club objectives to maintain the duality of our breed. In the past we have employed our Italian judges to help us reward this with the coveted "Bella E Bravo" but this year due to the circumstances of COVID-19 we have decided to award a 'Dual Dog' using our AKC hunt test and our AKC Conformation show. We have tried hard to make this a fair scoring system, with equal value on show and field. Dogs will have to enter both events at the National Specialty to Qualify and have a passing score in the field and a beat dog in the ring. The scoring will be done as follows:

Show points

Receive 1 point for each dog you beat

Example -

Best in show 40 dogs total in show - receives 39 points

Best of opposite is bitch -18 open bitches 1st- 17 points.

Plus 2 points from younger females not in open =19 points

Open Male - 20 Dogs - 2nd place male will receive 18 points, 3rd 17 points and so on.

If you enter a class with no competition, no points can be awarded.

Field points

Master Hunter - points equal to total dogs entered in Conformation Show

Senior Hunter - 1 point less than total dogs entered

Junior Hunter - 50 % of total dogs entered

Example of points in case of the 40 entry as above dog show

Master Hunter Pass - 40

Senior Hunter Pass- 39

Junior Hunter Pass- 20

Points for both added and most points is dual dog. Tie will be multiple winners.

There will be a dual dog awarded and an altered dual dog awarded.
